This Week's Congregational Prayer:

Offer these verses of Psalm 119:137-144 as words of prayer: "Righteous are you, O Lord, and your laws are right. <sup>138</sup> The statutes you have laid down are righteous; they are fully trustworthy. <sup>139</sup> My zeal wears me out, for my enemies ignore your words. <sup>140</sup> Your promises have been thoroughly tested, and your servant loves them. <sup>141</sup> Though I am lowly and despised, I do not forget your precepts. <sup>142</sup> Your righteousness is everlasting and your law is true. <sup>143</sup> Trouble and distress have come upon me, but your commands are my delight. <sup>144</sup> Your statutes are forever right; give me understanding that I may live."

SERMON NOTES

“I’m Not a Raven or Lily”

Psalm 13 - A psalm of David, An appeal for deliverance

- Structure of the psalm – appeal, reason for lament, expression of confidence in the Lord
- How long? Asked four times. He’s been oppressed by his enemies for a long time
- Believes the Lord has forgotten him – hidden his face – David felt abandoned
  - David was able to conquer mighty Goliath because he believed in the Lord’s presence
  - Now, feeling distant from the Lord, David is more easily moved to despair
- Bitter anguish and inner turmoil – not necessarily by his foes, by his theological assumption that the Lord rewards the righteous with prosperity
- Yet David knows of the Lord’s readiness to save
- A psalm of transition, from discouragement and despair to trust, joy, and encouragement.
- In reading the psalms, we often see ourselves and the feelings or situations we encounter.
- David took counsel in his own soul, which led to daily sorrow.
- David seeks the Lord in prayer.

Luke 12:22-34 - Do not worry about your life or about your body

- Life is more than food and the body more than clothes
  - How much is society caught up in a food craze?
  - How many of us have twice as many clothes as what we can wear?
- Jesus knows the damage worry can do to a person – stress affects the entire person.
- Consider the ravens, God takes care of them; we should expect He will take care of us.
- Yet birds don’t just sit with open mouths, expecting God to feed them, they work.
- Worry over material things of life stems from a low understanding of our value before God. We don’t comprehend how much He loves and cares for us.
- Worry accomplishes nothing; self-defeating and useless.
- As God cares for the flowers, not every day is bright and sunny, if there were not clouds and rain, the flowers would quickly die.
- O you of little faith.
- Give to the poor – take the focus off yourself, practice spiritual discipline
- Do not focus on the material, but seek his kingdom...where His treasure is.
  - Physical health is not the ultimate focus of life – spiritual health
- This teaching of Jesus comes after a parable in which the focus was on earthly treasure

SHSS: Our lesson comes from Numbers 21 & John 3, where we see the promise of God's provision. The bronze serpent points to both God's punishment of sin and His salvation through Jesus. When have you faced a decision that required faith?
