Congregational Prayer:

O Lord God, in your vast awareness and wisdom of life, I wonder what you are feeling and thinking about your people, your world, in today’s times. How far have I, how far have we, walked away from your will? Grant me the presence of your Spirit, sustain me in my faith and devotion to and of you, Lord. Forgive me for any complaining about life, when it would be much better to focus my energies on my relationship with you, and how I can testify to others of your love and grace. Guide me to be like Paul. Remove my doubt and fear and lack of courage, that I would be able to step out and step up in faith, that I will share my story of faith with others. Thank you, Lord, for the lessons from scripture. In Christ’s name I pray. Amen.
