Scripture

Psalms 32:8-11

“I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you and watch over you. ⁹ Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding but must be controlled by bit and bridle or they will not come to you. ¹⁰ Many are the woes of the wicked, but the Lord's unfailing love surrounds the man who trusts in him. ¹¹ Rejoice in the Lord and be glad, you righteous; sing, all you who are upright in heart!”

Scripture Reading

James 3:13-18

“Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show it by his good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom. ¹⁴ But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth. ¹⁵ Such "wisdom" does not come down from heaven but is earthly, unspiritual, of the devil. ¹⁶ For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder and every evil practice. ¹⁷ But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere. ¹⁸ Peacemakers who sow in peace raise a harvest of righteousness.”

They will also be sharing a presentation about Stand for Truth Ministries.

This Week's Congregational Prayer – Lord, God of truth and wisdom, you pull our thoughts from out of the world's ways of envy and selfishness, pointing us to your purity and mercy and peacefulness. When we get so caught up in purveying our own agenda's, when we fail to place your will first in our lives, when we have that earthly tendency to put forth our own wisdom as gospel, forgive us, Lord. Pull us back to the truth, the truth of scripture, to honor you with our lives. We praise you for guidance of scripture, such as the two beatitudes in Matthew 5:8-9: “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.” Let us see you, God, visibly and spiritually, at work in our own hearts and minds, and in the world. In Christ we pray. Amen.
