Scripture and Prayer

Romans 1:17

Prelude

“Amazing Grace”

†Call to Worship (L- Leader; P-People)

L: After studying Romans 1:17, Martin Luther observed that the righteousness with which our merciful God justifies us is the righteousness of God. We are not justified (that is, made right with God) by our own righteousness. We are justified by the righteousness of God himself. This revelation opened Luther’s eyes to the mercy and goodness of God.

P: We are forever grateful for the amazing grace of God, that in his great mercy he would justify sinners like us!

L: We are grateful for the gift of God’s Word to us, that through it he would make his grace and mercy known to us.

P: We are grateful for the faithful men and women who have gone before us, leaving us a legacy of knowing, loving, and following God.

L: Let us embrace that legacy, as we enjoy afresh the gift of God’s grace, and gratefully sing our praise to the God who is our very heart, our love, our life, and our everything.

Worship Service Scripture Readings

Romans 1:17

“For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed – a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: ‘The righteous will live by faith.’”

Romans 5:1-11

“Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ²through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we boast in the hope of the glory of God. ³Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴perseverance, character; and character, hope. ⁵And hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us. ⁶You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. ⁸But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. ⁹Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God’s wrath through him! ¹⁰For if, while we were God’s enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life! ¹¹Not only is this so, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.”

Sermon Notes

Sermon "The Joy of Justification"

Scripture Romans 5:1-11

Theme We'll be looking at the legacy of the Protestant Reformation, including the recovery of the Word of God, the recovery of the doctrines of grace (especially that we are saved by grace not by works), culminating in the recovery of joy in the Christian Life.

Memorial Service

Esther Rice entered into eternal life on June 20th at the age of 100. Her memorial service will be held in the sanctuary this afternoon at 1:30PM, as Esther requested that the organ she played for over 60 years be played during the service. People of the congregation are invited to attend this celebration of life service and time of remembrance.

This Week's Congregational Prayer

Almighty God, we praise you that through the Scriptures we come to know you as a merciful, gracious, and loving God. Though our sins are many, your grace is greater than all our sins. Though we can't afford the debt our sins have earned, you sent your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, to pay all our debts for us. Though we could never hope to merit your loving affection, Jesus bestows us with all of his righteousness, so that we might know your full and boundless love and pleasure. With our lives hidden in Christ, you look at us and say: "This is my son, whom I love, with whom I am well pleased!" Father God, we praise you for your amazing love! Amen.

Stephen Ministry

In Romans 12, the apostle Paul talks about the body of Christ. He urges listeners to use whatever gifts they have been given to their fullest ability. It doesn't matter which gifts we might have. What matters is that we use them to the best of our ability for the good of others. In a church family, people care for each other. They use their gifts to help each other and to see that anyone who is wounded or hurting or in some difficulty is looked after and loved. Sometimes healing is possible. Other times mourning and support are what's needed. At times we ALL need caring for. Stephen Ministers are trained to reach out and make a difference. Let them use their gifts to add to your fullness of life.

Due to the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic, we will continue to offer distance worship options. Join us on Sunday mornings at 8:30 AM on 96.1 WMTR to listen to last week's worship service.
