Scripture Readings

---

Zephaniah 3:14-20 Sing, O Daughter of Zion; shout aloud, O Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, O Daughter of Jerusalem! <sup>15</sup> The Lord has taken away your punishment, he has turned back your enemy. The Lord, the King of Israel, is with you; never again will you fear any harm. <sup>16</sup> On that day they will say to Jerusalem, "Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands hang limp. <sup>17</sup> The Lord your God is with you, he is mighty to save. He will take great delight in you, he will quiet you with his love, he will rejoice over you with singing." <sup>18</sup> "The sorrows for the appointed feasts I will remove from you; they are a burden and a reproach to you. <sup>19</sup> At that time I will deal with all who oppressed you; I will rescue the lame and gather those who have been scattered. I will give them praise and honor in every land where they were put to shame. <sup>20</sup> At that time I will gather you; at that time I will bring you home. I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth when I restore your fortunes before your very eyes," says the Lord.

Isaiah 12:2-6 Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The Lord, the Lord, is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation." <sup>3</sup> With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. <sup>4</sup> In that day you will say: "Give thanks to the Lord, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done, and proclaim that his name is exalted. <sup>5</sup> Sing to the Lord, for he has done glorious things; let this be known to all the world. <sup>6</sup> Shout aloud and sing for joy, people of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel among you."

Jeremiah 33:1-9 While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the Lord came to him a second time: <sup>2</sup> "This is what the Lord says, he who made the earth, the Lord who formed it and established it -- the Lord is his name: <sup>3</sup> 'Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.' <sup>4</sup> For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the houses in this city and the royal palaces of Judah that have been torn down to be used against the siege ramps and the sword <sup>5</sup> in the fight with the Babylonians: 'They will be filled with the dead bodies of the men I will slay in my anger and wrath. I will hide my face from this city because of all its wickedness. <sup>6</sup> "Nevertheless, I will bring health and healing to it; I will heal my people and will let them enjoy abundant peace and security. <sup>7</sup> I will bring Judah and Israel back from captivity and will rebuild them as they were before. <sup>8</sup> I will cleanse them from all the sin they have committed against me and will forgive all their sins of rebellion against me. <sup>9</sup> Then this city will bring me renown, joy, praise and honor before all nations on earth that hear of all the good things I do for it; and they will be in awe and will tremble at the abundant prosperity and peace I provide for it.'

Sermon Notes

---

Sermon - "Genuine Truth"

Scripture Reading - Jeremiah 33:1-9

Congregational Prayer

Lord, Zechariah's words of prophecy concerning his son, John, and the messiah display your blessing of peace and restoration. I offer my own praise and worship to you, Mighty God, for your handiwork in my life is both evident and vibrant. Lord, you know your creation is in turmoil, sin continues to escalate. In this our prayer, as we pray for the second coming of Christ so that peace will reign, we pray for the softening of people's hearts, that this Advent season would be one of true preparation, true confession, true repentance - for your glory and people's peace. Continue to work and reveal yourself amongst us, we pray. Amen.
